

Welcome!

We're looking forward to seeing you in Gatlinburg
August 12-16.

Welcome to the Conference

TML President Ken Moore and everyone at the Tennessee Municipal League would like to welcome you to the 2022 Annual Conference. We are looking forward to building a great conference with you in Gatlinburg.

About the Conference

Our 82-year legacy of the education, networking, and exhibits will continue this year. Municipal staff and Local government officials (elected and appointed) can build their skills and their networks at this four-day event.

Benefits of Exhibiting

Exhibit at the League Expo to network and engage with leaders in local governments from all points of the Volunteer State. Educate municipal officials and professionals on the products and services your company has to assist in solving their issues. Reserve your exhibit space today with Debbie Kluth, Director of Marketing and Member Services, Direct #: (615) 425-3908 or email at dkluth@TML1.org

Benefits of Attending

Whether you're attending for education, networking, or taking in the latest products and services, the conference's benefits will extend beyond conference. Boost your professional development and get the proper tools to build stronger communities.

Code of Conduct

As always, the League is committed to a successful conference that holds each attendee to a standard of behavior that guarantees an environment where all are protected and respected.

Health & Safety

TML will continue to track health and wellness issues to ensure a safe and healthy environment and will keep you informed about any policy developments.
